The Year-End Season Is Here

How can you use year-end communications to encourage gifts this year?

- As part of your regularly scheduled year-end appeal
- As an insert in gift acknowledgments this fall
- To include in pledge reminders and proposals
- As handouts at donor events
- As part of a mailing to members of your giving clubs and societies
- As part of your digital fundraising strategy

The nation's tax laws and continued growth in the economy are providing powerful incentives for charitable giving. In this positive environment, it's a great time to remind your donors of the benefits of giving before the end of 2016.

Donors should be aware that tax law changes can mean greater potential savings from gifts made before year-end. Others may benefit from giving through retirement plans or noncash gifts such as stock.

Start the conversation with your donors now.

Sharpe's 2016 year-end giving communications are a convenient and cost-effective way to share with donors the advantages of funding gifts with cash or other assets including appreciated property and other plans.

You can also order conveniently from our online shop at www.SHARPEnet.com/publications.

Personalization

Sharpe can add your logo and contact information on the front, back or both.

We include a sample cover letter, reply card text, P.S. language and suggested web/article copy for use with your publications.

Prefer something more unique to your brand? We can customize communications specifically for your needs.

Sharpe Group looks forward to working with you to ensure that 2016 will be a successful year for your organization. Call us at 901.680.5300 or visit www.SHARPEnet.com/publications.
