

About Planning With Purpose Newsletter Program

Four times a year, Sharpe Group offers Planning With Purpose, an affordable and engaging planned giving newsletter program with two levels available (see details below). This newsletter is written and designed to motivate donors to make larger gifts today and through their long-range financial plans. Topics include estate planning, wills and bequests, noncash assets, beneficiary designations, giving through retirement plans—such as QCDs—and other relevant and timely topics.

The follow-up e-booklet is an additional $350. For personalized option only: Are you interested in replacing the Page 1 article with a donor story? We can interview your donor and write the article for an additional $600.

The minimum quantity is 500. Newsletters are two colors (black and a PMS ink) and the coordinating PMS ink is determined by Sharpe Group at the time each issue is planned. To minimize overlap of donor constituencies, invitations to participate are limited among types of organizations in any geographic area. All orders are shipped via FedEx Ground. Expect delivery in the continental U.S. within five business days after noted ship date. Orders shipped to California addresses will be subject to California Use Tax. For questions, call 901.680.5322.
