Day Two

11:00 EST    Session 3: Gift Planning for Seniors

Americans age 75 represent two of the wealthiest generations in history: the G.I. and Silent Generations. Many among this group are now in the process of making their final estate plans—plans that will be the source of the vast majority of income from estate gifts over the next decade. Learn to help them structure their charitable gifts while also maintaining financial security for themselves and their loved ones.

12:00 EST    BREAK

12:30 EST    Session 4: How Will Baby Boomers Boom?

The remaining Baby Boomers will reach the age of 70 between now and 2034. The youngest Boomer couples enjoy a life expectancy approaching 40 more years. For now, the bulk of the Baby Boomers are still in their prime earning and giving years while planning for what may be a lengthy retirement. Others may already be retired while also assisting children and aging parents. This vitally important segment of the population will be critical to the success of many upcoming campaigns as well as ongoing fundraising efforts. Learn how the creative use of certain gift planning vehicles can result in significant gifts from this group.
