

Kristin Croone, JD
Senior Consultant

Kristin is a Sharpe Group senior consultant with a JD. She has worked for both law and accounting firms in the areas of tax and estate planning and has served as director of planned giving and legal counsel for the Community Foundation of Greater Memphis. She brings valuable experience in donor stewardship as well as tax and estate planning law.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University and the Case Western Reserve University School of Law, Kristin provides her Sharpe clients with consulting expertise and strategic planning in the areas of major and planned giving in addition to estate gift settlement and administration.

She has particular experience working with community foundations, national health-related and environmental organizations and educational institutions, including both higher education and private high schools.

Popular speaking topics:

- Tax matters.
- Charitable estate planning.
- Noncash gifts.
- Life income gifts.
- Staff training on planned and major gifts.
- Board training on planned giving.
- Gift planning programs for planned giving professional groups.
- Community and private foundations.

Contact info:

KRISTIN CROONE

Sharpe Group Senior Consultant

901.491.0911 | kristin.croone@sharpegroup.org

Follow her on LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/kristin-croone-6954a4203/>